BOOMTOWN BEAT

Welcome back to the Boomtown Beat where you can find the very latest on our DocuFilm project "BOOMTOWN: The Story of Downtown Frederick"

UPDATES

- Part 1 sold out multiple shows at Warehouse Cinemas in early 2025
- 250 people involved in the making of part 1
- over $260,000 in cash has been raised.
- $200,000 more is needed to finish part 2
- BOOMTOWN isn't just a film...It's a tribute to the townspeople who built it, fought for it and never gave up on it.

PART 2 - CURRENTLY IN PRODUCTION

Tells the story of a young multi-racial woman named Lexie Brown who arrives in Frederick during the fall of 2025. She is attending Hood College and studying Art History and Archeology. She is also a podcaster, dancer and a revolutionary in her thinking.

She sets out to trace her grandfather's footsteps (the legendary newspaper photographer Amos Brown) to uncover what it was that triggered the Renaissance in Downtown Frederick and what she comes to discover will save the future of her town.

BOOMTOWN World Premiere of Feature Film is scheduled for Saturday January 24, 2026 @ The Weinberg Performing Arts Center as part of the 250th Celebration of American democracy.

BOOMTOWN "The Story of Downtown Frederick"

A DocuFilm is about a group of rebels that led a movement back in the 70's that would save their downtown and spark a Renaissance in ART—a boom in creativity of revolutionary proportions.

BOOMTOWN Be The Revolution.
